

For Immediate Release
June 14, 2007
Washington, DC

Contact: Amy Hinojosa
Telephone: 202-833-0060
ahinojosa@hermana.org

MANA, A National Latina Organization Partners with Rooms To Go and Myrka Dellanos to Benefit MANA de San Antonio HERMANITAS®

San Antonio, TX--MANA, A National Latina Organization, with headquarters in Washington, DC, twenty one Chapters nationwide and four affiliates across the nation, will be joining Rooms To Go in welcoming Myrka Dellanos to the showroom in San Antonio on Saturday, June 23, from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. It is located at 707 N. W. Loop 410. This event will support the San Antonio HERMANITAS® program as 10% of Saturday's San Antonio store sales will directly benefit these young Latina leaders.

"MANA is proud to join Rooms To Go in the effort to promote leadership among young Latinas from the MANA de San Antonio HERMANITAS® program. This direct investment into youth academic development demonstrates a strong commitment to the community and to future generations. As the national President and CEO of MANA and especially as a native San Antonian, I urge residents to visit Rooms To Go and invest in young Latinas as you furnish your homes," Alma Morales Riojas stated.

Rooms To Go is a Florida-based home furnishing company with stores in nine states, and includes Rooms to Go Kids, specializing in children's furniture. It is regarded as the top selling furniture retailer in the United States.

Myrka Dellanos is a beloved Spanish-language journalist and television host, known to millions of viewers throughout the United States and Latin America. She is also involved in many philanthropic endeavors, including projects with World Vision, Save the Children, Habitat for Humanity, and the American Diabetes Foundation. Ms. Dellanos is also the founder of her own philanthropic organization, MROC International. In addition to these activities, Ms. Dellanos was appointed by President George W. Bush to the Freedom Corps.

###

About MANA: MANA, A National Latina Organization, is a nonprofit advocacy organization headquartered in Washington, DC. With chapters across the country, it is the oldest national Latina membership organization in the United States. MANA, whose mission is to empower Latinas through leadership development, community service, and advocacy, envisions a national community of informed Latina activists working to improve the quality of life for all Hispanics. MANA also has the only national Latina mentoring program for girls 11 to 17, "HERMANITAS®" which brings over 100 girls each year to a Washington, DC leadership institute that in 2007 will include briefings on Capitol Hill as well as the Pentagon.*